The Religious Paper Is To the Christian.

- ¶ He simply cannot do without it and not suffer loss.
- ¶ He needs its news of the kingdom.
- ¶ He needs its reports of his own church.
- ¶ He needs its solutions of the practical problems of Christian life and religious work.
- ¶ He needs it as a school of methods.
- ¶ He needs its inspiration as, like a shuttle, it weaves the scattered threads of religious news and spiritual influence into one great fabric.

FORENOTE.

THIS book seeks to place before the members of the Reformed Church in the United States, a compact and yet comprehensive exhibit of the work of the year throughout the Church, at home and abroad. By illustrations, summaries, condensed estimates of achievement and carefully compiled statistics, it covers the whole field, and provides an adequate review of present conditions. While all sectarian narrowness is to be deplored and avoided, our members should be well versed in the facts of their own denominational organization and activity. This includes the work of the several boards, institutions and individual churches, as well as the data of the Church as a whole.

The past year was one of marked progress in our Church. There has been encouraging growth in numbers; increase in giving and expansion in policy. As a General Synod year it had special importance because of the deliberations of that body and the emphasis placed by it upon the consolidation and unification measures considered and recommended. The proposed union with the Presbyterian Church was and is prominent in the mind of the Church, and will be definitely acted upon by the Classes during this triennium.

Our Women's Work has been steadily but surely coming to the fore. The nearly four hundred societies with their thousands of members and nearly fifty thousand dollars assumed and raised, as reported at their Canton meeting, have come to be a force to be reckoned with as a mighty factor in carrying forward the work of the kingdom.

Home and Foreign Mission work have been aggressively prosecuted and a number of new missionaries were sent to our promising foreign fields.

The Sunday School work has expanded to large proportions and been given special emphasis as the Church has come more keenly to realize its cruciality.

Altogether, there is everything in a careful review of the various lines of work to stimulate the whole membership to the greatest zeal and most ardent devotion to the Master's cause. The data given in these pages, if intelligently pondered, will yield rich results in enlarged vision and intensified spiritual purpose.

United States Educational Data.

BECAUSE the relation of the church and the schoolhouse—religion and education—have been so clearly recognized and so consistently emphasized by the Reformed Church from its beginning, these very vital statistics, compiled by the Chicago News, will have special significance for us, and, in consequence, are given this prominent place.

Easter Day From 1912 to 1925.

EASTER Sunday is a movable festival, because it falls on different dates in different years. It is kept on the Sunday next after the fourteenth day of the Paschal moon; the Paschal moon being that moon of which the fourteenth day (approximately the full moon) occurs on or next after the 21st of March. Hence Easter cannot occur earlier than March 22 (when the fourteenth day of the Paschal moon is Saturday, March 21), nor later than April 25 (when the fourteenth day of the Paschal moon is Sunday, April 18).

The Support of a Foreign Missionary.

BECAUSE of frequent inquiries as to the items of expense which enter into the support of a foreign missionary, and believing that it will be of general interest to the Church, we furnish the following information: The support of a married man is: Salary, $1200.00; house or rent; travel, medical expense and language teacher, about $200.00; for each child under twenty-one years of age, $100.00; an allowance of $600.00 to cover expenses of outfit and freight on goods; and a sufficient amount, approximately $700.00 for fare and passage money to the field.

The support of a single missionary is: Salary, $600.00 for a single lady, and $700.00 for a single man; house or rent; travel, medical expenses and language teacher, about $150.00; an allowance of $300.00 to cover expense of outfit and freight on goods, and approximately $350.00, for fare and passage money to the field.

Christian Endeavor Statistics.

The total world-wide enrollment of societies is now 79,077 with a membership of 3,953,850, the largest in the history of the movement. Of these societies 57,589 are in the United States and Canada, and 21,488 in the world field, with practically every country represented. Notable among the foreign countries showing marked gains in Christian Endeavor is China, with a total of 781 societies, an increase of 381 over the last report, or nearly one hundred per cent., and India with 1337 societies.

Since July, 1909, there have been reported to the United Society by national, State, Provincial, and denominational unions 10,345 new societies of Christian Endeavor, and in these and in the societies, already organized, 1,002,500 new members, and the remarkable thing about these reports is that over 7000 are young people's societies.

In the last two years more than 5,000,000 prayer meetings have been held, with an estimated attendance of more than 200,000,000 young people; more than 1,000,000 missionary meetings have been held, with an attendance of 50,000,000; 500,000 temperance meetings have been held, with an attendance of 20,000,000; more than 500,000 socials have been held.

The Bausman Memorial Church, Wyomissing, Pa.

Rev. Geo. F. Chenot.

THE WORLD'S field representative has been remarkably successful in securing new subscribers, having added about three thousand names to the list, with an excellent outlook for largely increasing that total during 1912. He is an aggressive and efficient worker, and well qualified for his mission of disseminating good literature among our congregations. He has been very kindly received and many of our pastors have volunteered testimony as to the good impression left by his visits.

Kingdom Facts and Figures.

The Y. M. C. A. membership of N. America, 536,037, shows a gain for the year of 39,446. Of the total number of members, 167,850 are industrial workers. The net property gain for the year was $7,162,000, bringing the total up to $67,539,000.

The last report of the China Inland Mission shows that there are now in the Mission 968 missionary workers, besides 2,638 Chinese preachers and evangelists of various kinds. The increase last year was $375,000, which was a slight advance over the previous year.

Among the chaplains of the United States army the Churches are represented as follows: Roman Catholic, 16; Protestant Episcopal, 14; Presbyterian, 7; Methodist Episcopal, 7; Baptist, 6; Congregational, 3; Methodist Episcopal, South, 3; Unitarian, 2; Lutheran, 2; Christian, 1; United Brethren, 1; African Methodist, 2; Colored Baptist, 1.

The Student Volunteer Movement furnished to missionary societies in 1910 for service on foreign fields 368 men and women, who went under fifty-three different societies. Up to the beginning of the calendar year the Volunteers had furnished 4,784 missionaries to all fields.

Significant Figures.

The average ministerial salary in the United States is $663.

In the Baptist Church, in the south the average is $367.

The Congregational Methodists with 324 ministers, average $111.

The Separate Baptists average $121.

The Unitarian average is the highest — $1653.

In direct expense and loss of possible earnings, it costs $10,000 to prepare for the ministry.

In 1906 the Baptists had 6,302 more church-buildings than ministers: the Lutherans 3,353; the Presbyterians 2,855; the Methodists 20,253.

The communicant membership in all religious denominations in the United States is about 33,000,000 out of a population of over 90,000,000. When it is remembered that a large proportion of the remaining 57,000,000 are young children, this percentage is encouraging.

There are nearly 14,000 foreign missionaries at work, with $10,000,000 contributed annually from the United States.

The proportion of communicants to population is: New York City, 44.7; Chicago, 40.7;

Philadelphia, 38.8; Boston, 62.6 and St. Louis, 46.6.

There are in the United States 142 denominations with 14 sub-divisions of Baptists; 24 of Lutherans; 15 of Methodists; 12 of Presbyterians.

One small town in Wisconsin has thirteen religious organizations, ranging from a membership of 25 (Christian Scientist) to 325 (Presbyterian and Methodist). The salaries range from $200 to $300, the total salary list aggregating $8,100, and the "other expenses" account $2300.

Yu Sien Seng of Yochow, a gifted Confucian scholar, was won for Christ through the instrumentality of Missionary Reimert last year. Soon after uniting with the church he did what no scholar ever did in that city. He came to the church one day with his wife by his side and his child on his arm. In China it is degrading for a scholar to be seen talking or walking in public with his wife. Yet this man was able to stand out alone and to overcome the prejudices of centuries for Christ's sake. Scholarly and dignified, with great force of character, he will be a powerful witness among the literati of Yochow.

Our New Missionaries.

The most recent recruits to our foreign missionary ranks provide a strong and acceptable reinforcement. A number of these have come from the Student Volunteer forces and are evidence of the continued vitality and influence of that movement. They have been divided between Japan and China and represent the flower of our consecrated youth. It is interesting also to note that most of them bear historic Reformed names and come from the manse. They are greatly needed at the under-manned stations to which they were sent. May their influence for good be inestimably strong, and may the guidance and protection promised to Christ's chosen ones be theirs.

Amount required for the next triennium $636,000.

In the light of past experience, and the knowledge of the present needs of the fields, not to speak of an aggressive movement towards the realization of our aim as a denomination, namely, the evangelization of ten millions and the raising of one million dollars, per annum, this is the amount the Church ought to provide for the years 1911-1914. Will you lend a hand?

Missionary Nuggets.

The great missionary movement is God's, and we are only a part of it.

The cause of foreign missions is not, and can not be a lost cause.

Nothing has served to stem the flood of worldliness at home so much as the cause of foreign missions.

The doors of the world are open at the cost of great sacrifices, of prayers, tears, labors, and gifts. Let us enter them.

The price of shining is burning.

Thirty thousand undergraduates and 200,000 other young people in the United States and Canada last year systematically studied books on foreign missions.

Students in 800 higher institutions of learning in the United States and Canada gave $100,000 for foreign missions.

The problem of missions is not on the mission field, but in the Church at home.

There is not a missionary who does not crave the prayers of God's people.

Our Foreign Home Missions.

We do not do all of our foreign mission work abroad. Foreigners are coming to our shores in ever increasing numbers and part of our work among them is being prosecuted here. Our New York harbor missionary, Rev. Paul Land, meets many of them on their arrival and extends a fraternal hand in the name of the Church. It is estimated that there are 100,000 Japanese in this country, 500 of whom, it has been stated, were in some way identified with our mission in Japan. The Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod, long desirous of having a specific field of labor in the home land, determined upon the adoption of this as its distinctive Home Missionary work and expressed a willingness to assume the financial obligations involved. In deference to these requests and promises, the Board commissioned the Rev. J. Mori as the missionary, under the supervision and direction of the General Superintendent.

Rev. Mr. Mori is abundantly qualified for this work. He studied for several years in our Reformed institutions and is a man of deep personal piety and consecration. He entered upon his work in September, 1910, with headquarters in San Francisco. The first Sunday after his arrival there he gathered together a number of Japanese brethren and held a prayer service. On October 30, 1910, the first Japanese Reformed congregation in America was duly organized. It was a notable event and gave the enterprise the stamp of dignity and power. Later on a three-story dwelling house was rented in the Japanese quarter of the city, which has been so arranged that the first floor may be used for religious services, the second for educational and social purposes, and the third as quarters for the missionary. In addition to the organization of this work in the city of San Francisco, Rev. Mr. Mori has made an extended tour through the State of California looking after the spiritual interests of his native brethren.

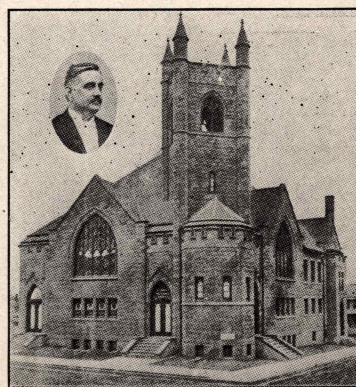

Hungarian immigration is on the increase. By reliable estimate there are 100,000 Reformed Magyars in this country. There are many places where religious work among them might be carried on by our Church. One serious difficulty is the securing of a competent and sufficient supply of ministers who can minister in the Hungarian language. The Board is at present supporting three Hungarian students for the ministry in several of our educational institutions. But even this supply is not adequate.

It is estimated that there are approximately 500,000 Bohemians in this country. There are 150,000 in Chicago alone. We have three organized missions among these people, at Cleveland, Chicago and Cedar Rapids. The Cedar Rapids Mission was enrolled during the last triennium. It recently dedicated a fine new church and is in an excellent position to do effective work amid a large Bohemian population. The mission at Chicago greatly needs a new building. Its present headquarters are altogether inadequate and do not challenge the attention of the foreigner in that section of the city where the Bohemians have expended many thousands of dollars in the erection and furnishing of their free thinking and infidel publishing plant. The work among these people is of a very difficult character but is of the utmost urgency and importance.

The oldest minister of our Church is Rev. Sebastian Barth of Indianapolis, Ind. He rounded out his 96th year October 18th, 1911.

By the purchase of adjacent lots the Reformed Church Building in Philadelphia, secured a plot of ground 120 feet by 120 feet fronting on four streets within one square of what seems destined to be, in the future, the finest section of the city of Philadelphia, for the Parkway, running from City Hall to Fairmount Park, is located within one square of the building and is expected to transform the entire locality.

The report of the Committee on Union with the Presbyterian Church was discussed at length at General Synod and referred to the Classes. The plan is to have the Classes consider the matter during the next three years and report to the General Synod in 1914. Should the Classes and Synods act favorably upon it, it will again be referred to the Classes for final action and the result declared at the meeting of the General Synod in 1917. Felicitations were exchanged with the General Assembly, in session at Atlantic City.

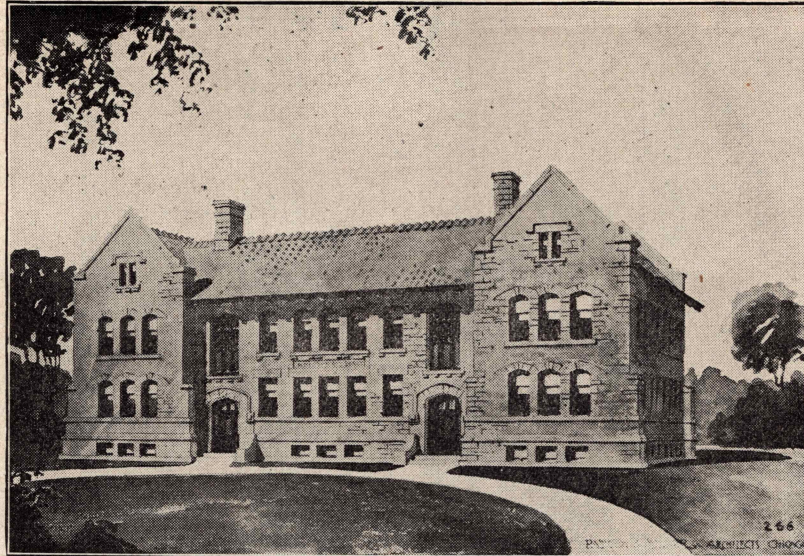

January 19th, 1911, the 350th anniversary of The Heidelberg Catechism, was observed by a number of churches.

Our Immigrant Problems.

A recent very significant exhibit of immigration statistics says that when, in 1882, 788,992 immigrants arrived, the record was broken to date. For the year ending June 30, 1905, they had increased to 1,059,755, and for the first, but not for the last time in the history of the country, the million-mark was passed. Preliminary figures, just issued by the Government, show that the arrivals in 1910 were 878,587. It appears, on the other hand, that about 300,000 immigrants of former years returned to Europe, so that the net gain in population from this source was about 580,000. Many of these people, however, did not go away with the intention of remaining but will come back, probably with members of their families or with friends and acquaintances in their train.

In 1882 there were, in round numbers, 250,000 arrivals from Germany, 82,000 from England, 76,000 from Ireland, 64,000 from Sweden, and 32,000 from Italy. But already by 1893 a notable change had taken place. In that year there were 96,000 from Germany, 73,000 from Italy, 60,000 from Austria-Hungary, 49,000 from Ireland, and 46,000 from England. Italy and Hungary continued to gain. In 1901 the arrivals included 136,000 from Italy, 113,000 from Austria-Hungary, 85,000 from Russia, 30,000 from Ireland, and 23,000 from Sweden. The returns for 1906 were even more startling, showing that of the total admissions of 1,167,000, Austria-Hungary furnished 265,188; Italy, 273,120; the Russian Empire, 215,665. The preliminary statement for last year indicates as compared with other years, a decided decrease in the German immigration and no increase in the Scandinavian. Approximately three-fourths of the whole number of aliens admitted came from the south and east of Europe. Italy was on the lead with 190,000, nearly 160,000 from Naples and Sicily. As against 66,471 Germans there were 71,400 Poles and 91,200 Jews from various European nations.

If the men of your church have been awakened to activity for Christ; if the women have been enlisted for local and missionary effort; and if the children are being trained for lives of zeal, that church is truly aggressive.

The Church Paper.

The widespread circulation of a church paper in a congregation is a vital condition of real success. The members need the educational and inspirational influences which it exerts; they need to be kept in close touch with the work throughout the denomination through the articles, reports and news published in its columns. It will pay a pastor over and over in large and definite spiritual returns to put forth earnest effort toward introducing the church paper into every family.

Kingdom Notes.

In the city of Philadelphia there are 2,376 separate agencies engaged in benevolent or philanthropic work.

Eight priests in Portugal have withdrawn from the Roman Catholic Church, and have set up a national Portuguese Church.

St. George's Episcopal Church, New York City, has 5,229 members, this being the largest number of members reported by any Protestant Church in this country.

How to Pray for Missions.

In addition to all of our planning and giving for Missions we must pray for this work "without ceasing." We give some excellent suggestions made by a recent writer. He says, pray that the missionary may have wisdom, patience, love, and tact in presenting the truth to the ignorant, prejudiced minds of his hearers in the bazars, villages, and fairs.

That the native preachers may be faithful, zealous, and eminently successful in winning their countrymen to Christ.

That the inquirers may have courage to come out boldly in the open confession of the Saviour, and endure joyfully the spoiling of their goods.

That there may be seen on the part of seekers genuine convictions of sin and manifest proofs of the Spirit's work.

That the native Christians may be moved by a mighty impulse to bring each one his brother to Jesus, and may be strengthened so to live that the heathen around may be impressed by the manifest change for the better.

That the Bible, wherever sold or distributed, may be illumined by the Holy Ghost, and be the nucleus for groups of believers.

That those engaged in preparing, printing, and circulating papers, tracts, and other Christian literature may be divinely guided and see much fruit.

That teachers in college and schools may be able to lead their students to a love of the truth as it is in Jesus.

That God would raise up able evangelists to do for heathen lands something such a work as Wesley and Whitefield did for England.

That the hearts of kings and others in high places of authority may be touched, and their great influence turned on the side of the Lord.

That the Women who go to the Zenanas may be able to arouse an interest in the true salvation among those so long debased with frivolous superstitions.

That God would send forth laborers into his harvest.

That the vast wealth of the present day, locked up in nominally Christian coffers, might be set free to bless the earth.

That young men and women debating the question of a missionary vocation might be led to a right decision.

That missionary secretaries and editors may have all the strength and wisdom their important and difficult positions require.

That missionaries on sick leave may speedily recover their health so as to be able to return to their fields.

That missionaries' children, providentially separated from parental supervision, may have special Divine watch-care, and receive training for large usefulness in mission fields or elsewhere.

That the governments of the earth may be restrained from putting obstacles in the way of mission work, and that the time may speedily come when there shall be perfect liberty of opinion and public worship.

Men's Work.

The year 1911 was signalized by the special emphasis placed upon Men's Work, and important effort put forth in this direction, and the large and definite results secured. A number of Laymen's Missionary Movement Conventions were held in our own Church, culminating in the splendid Mass Convention held at Canton in connection with the meeting of General Synod. Not only was deep enthusiasm awakened, but very practical results were achieved in the way of stimulating the men in a number of our congregations to quickened interest and greater activity along missionary lines. Rev. Dr. William E. Lampe devoted his time and talents to this work, and will continue to do so for some time to come. The missionary spirit and giving of a long list of our congregations have been very perceptibly increased.

These same results are reported as flowing from this Movement in other denominations.

The Men and Religion campaign was formally launched last fall and large returns are expected. Its special object has been succinctly summarized as follows:

To help find the three million men missing from participation in church life.

To emphasize masculine Christianity.

To energize the Christian manhood of America.

To stimulate specialized work for men and boys to Christ and the church.

To win thousands of unconverted men and boys to Christ and the church.

To double the enrollment in Bible study classes.

To continue the emphasis upon the great missionary appeal at home and in the non-Christian world.

To reveal programs of Christian service that will command the lives of the most efficient men and boys of the two nations.

In order to gain these ends this program was adopted:

To make the Christian religion a vital topic throughout the country during 1911-12 in books, magazines, newspaper articles and through many other mediums of publicity.

To arouse every church and men's organization to a program of enlarged effort for men and boys, by literature, press notices and public presentations; and to ask every local church to observe Sunday, Sept. 24, 1911, as "Rally Day."

From September, 1911, to May, 1912, to conduct 8-day campaigns in 90 central cities, and three to five-day campaigns in 1350 auxiliary cities, supervised by teams of experts, in methods of Bible study, evangelism, boys' work, social service and missionary enterprises.

To regard Sunday, April 28, 1912, as "Conservation Day" when throughout Greater Boston and elsewhere all churches, Brotherhoods, Sunday-schools and Young Men's Christian Associations should adopt a five-year program of aggressive Christian effort by and for men and boys.

Missionary Statistics.

Foreign missionary statistics of the Christian world. In America the contributions for last year—1910—were $12,000,000, a gain of $600,000. According to Dr. Leonard, this is a satisfactory proof of the efforts of the Laymen's Missionary Movement. Our English friends have done still better. Last year they gave $11,000,000, a gain of $1,500,000 over the year before. There is also a gain in Germany, but not nearly as much. All Christendom has given $26,800,000 as over against $24,600,000 in 1909. The native churches gave last year $5,250,000, a gain of $400,000. Remembering these gains in money it is surprising that there is a falling off in the number of missionaries at work. In the fields represented by American Missionary Societies there was a drop from 7677 to 7262. The total number commissioned by all the societies of the world is 21,844. Last year's additions to the native churches representing converts from paganism amounted to 140,000, a gain of 5000 a year over the previous twelve months. The communicant members in the native Churches now number over 222,000. Adherents upwards of nine millions. There are in the foreign mission schools one million and a half of boys and girls under Christian instruction.—Missionary Review.
